To whom it may concern,

During the process of our search to secure a Fund Raising Consultant, we interviewed 4 organizations. Our procedure used a committee with an extensive list of questions that involved background information, campaign management style and the obvious, what's this going to cost us?

After the interview we did an in-depth evaluation, checked references and prayed. It was a unanimous decision to select JHM Associates. JHM and Associates brings professionalism, experience and enthusiasm. Their background in the camping ministry was exactly what we were looking for. They have a history of successful campaigns with camps because they understand camps.

I have personally been working with Jeff Gardner and have found his leadership style effective. He did not bring a "canned" program but listened to us, evaluated our ministry and designed a program that is effective for us.

I would give JHM and Associates my highest recommendations to any ministry looking to raise funds for God's work.

Sincerely yours,

Bud Wagner
